

BUNGEE

One, two, three ... BUNGEEEEE!

Bungee jumping is definitely one of the most popular sports. Growing number of adventurers, together with the opportunities and new places to jump, but nevertheless there are still some who became a couple of meters above the ground cannot break and give up. Those who ran excited are brilliant. Bungee jumping is a solid shot of adrenaline. Jumpers were the first indigenous peoples in the Pacific islands of Pentecost. Young men jumped from bamboo towers, protected tied to the ankles. Leaped to ensure fertility and the tribe to prove his masculinity. The first stroke put off the island Pentecost took place in April 1979 in the UK from the Bridge Clifton Suspension Bridge in Bristol. This event is considered the beginning of bungee jumping. Bungee jumping is probably the most popular extreme discipline. It does not matter the age. You do not need to be athletic. Just decide: Jump. It is true that often changed the sentence barrier, seeing the 45-meter gap, but I can no longer honor to go back. This is also probably the most accessible and inexpensive sport extreme. In many cities can find a specially arranged for this purpose cranes. But the pleasant jumps from bridges, far from civilization.
